

What are the inspirations for your lyrics and music?

Sea horses, romantic novels and a general love for myself.

What is the most challenging work as far as creating a song? Writing the music, the lyrics, getting it produced?

It all feels very natural to me and the only challenge is myself.

What comes first the music or the lyrics?

I do them both at the same time.

How would you classify your music? Is there a genre you feel the music fits into?

I would like to attempt as many genres as possible. But currently I think I sit in the rock, folk, soul category. I am a fantastic rapper though.

Who are the artists who have influenced you the most?

Destiny Child, Babyface, R.Kelly, Johnny Cash just to name a few.

What is your musical background and how did you come to be a musician?

My mother and my friends were always musical, I was a late bloomer. Through spending life with them it didn't feel like a challenge to start, there was help.

What is your favorite song you've written?

I don't have favorites but right now there is a song I wrote in Nashville called "Don't you Dare". I love its rawness.

What is your favorite band/musician right now?

Shera Kelly, Markus Foster but I don't really have favorites I like music.

Is playing in the States different from playing in the UK? From Playing in Canada? Are the fans different? How has the overall experience been?

It's not the country that makes it different it's the mood in the room. So far, everywhere I've played has been very kind to me. I'm sure there's room for change I haven't played a show for the Hells Angels yet.
